Arvida sponsors 4th of July parade

If a child can push, pull or ride it, it can be decorated and entered in the Second Annual Old Fashioned Fourth of July Children's Parade, Tuesday, July 4 from 10 a.m. to noon.

Sponsored by Arvida Realty Sales Ltd., the parade will take place at the Park at Millpond, at St. Andrews Boulevard and Potomac Road.

Fifty-dollar U.S. Savings Bonds will be awarded for the most patriotic and creative entries in three age groups.

Age groups are from 2 to 4; 5 to 8; and 9 to 12. An old-fashioned band playing patriotic melodies, clowns entertaining the young and old, and a vintage popcorn wagon will add to the atmosphere of a nostalgic, fun-for-the-whole-family celebration.

All children entertaining the parade will receive balloons and American flags, and T-shirts will be given to the first 200 entries.

Last year, more than 200 spectators lined the parade route at Timbercreek Park where youngsters from two to 12 years old formed a colorful procession of bicycles, tricycles, wagons and doll buggies decorated to reflect the Independence Day theme.

"It was the kind of celebration that you'd expect to see in a small town of 50 years ago," said Erdine Schaefer, sales coordinator at Arvida. "Some things just never go out of style."
